VOLUME XXII

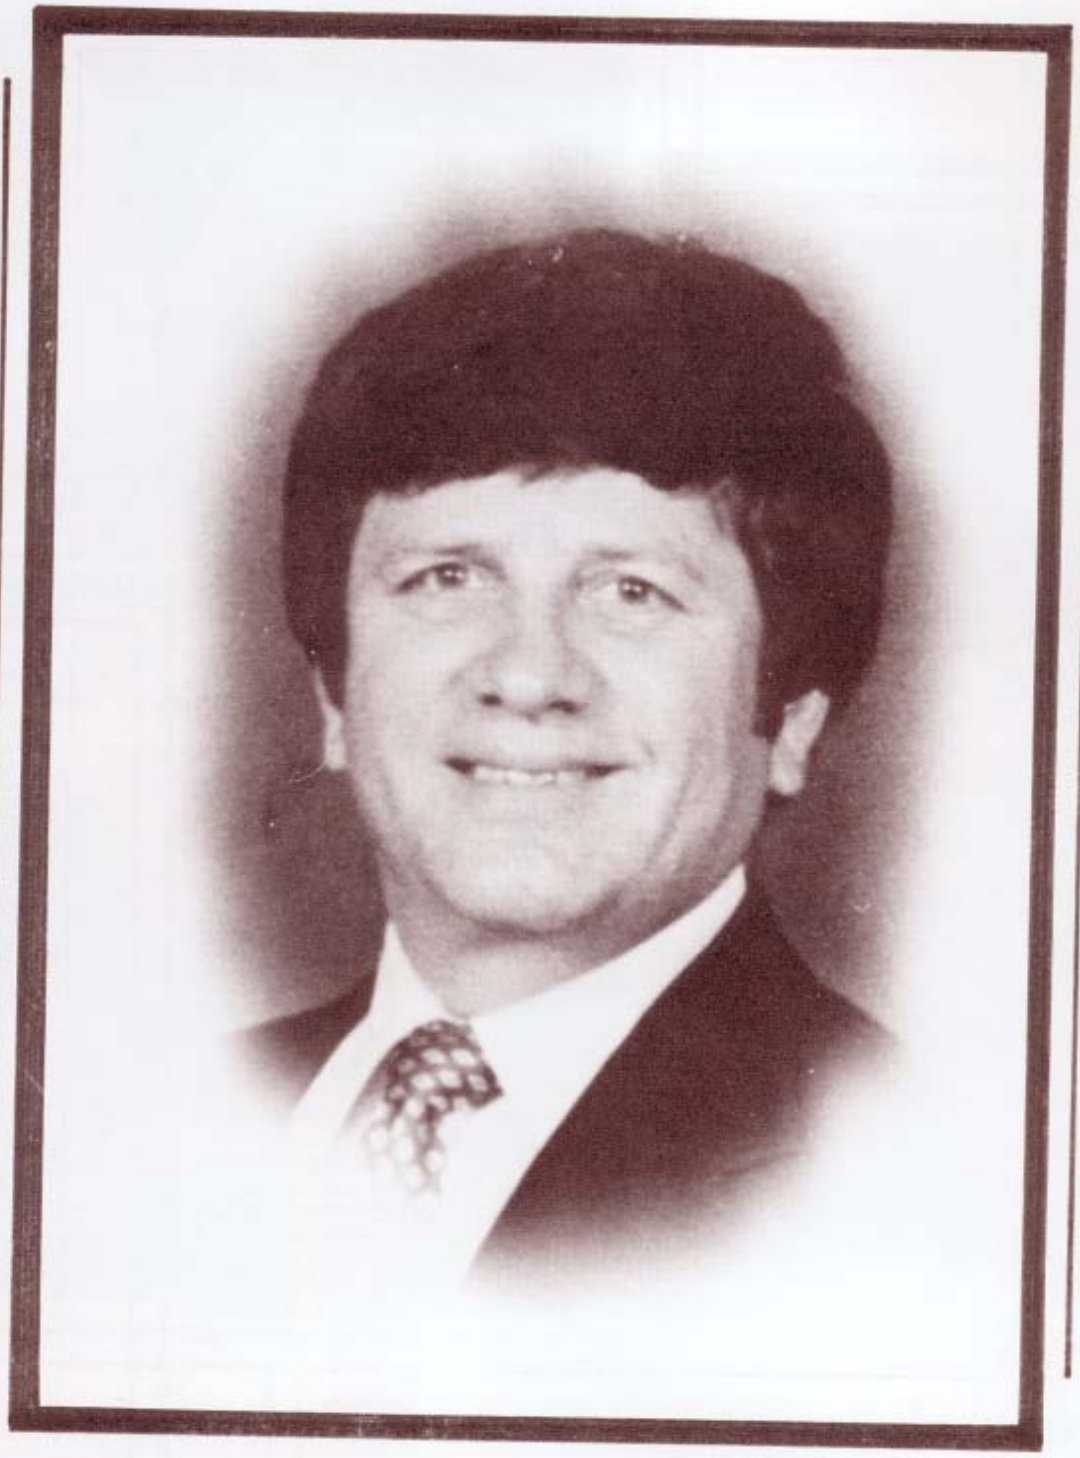
CARMICHAELS, PA.

Expressions

Life is filled with expressions, whether it be a facial expression, or a written expression of your deepest emotions. We, the staff of the '84 Echo, would like to welcome you into the realm of expressionism in our school. 1) Mr. Christy seems to be saying "How am I supposed to keep order with a bunch like this?" 2) This gang has a look as if they're ready to scream "Get out of my face." 3) "Discipline? What's discipline?", inquires Becky McCann. 4) These guys roam the halls and just "hang out."

1) Susan Hewitt and Colleen Ehrmlick seem to be saying, "What's the deal?" 2) Derrick Crago and Deanne Hanuschock express their jovial mood with a mile smile. 3) A classic expression of hard work given to us courtesy of Carol Masuga. 4) Believe it or not, school can be fun. This is learned through a gaze into a junior high classroom.

In Memory



The 1984 yearbook staff would like to dedicate this volume of the Echo in memory of Mr. Mario Burchianti. He was employed in the Carmichaels Area School District for 29 years teaching Biology and Social Studies.

During his career, he sponsored the Conservation Club activities for many years. His passing has greatly affected his colleagues and students, but his service will be remembered and revered by all.

ADMINISTRATION/ FACULTY

To the right, Mr. William Harr principal of our Jr.-Sr. High School. Along with his two secretaries, Mrs. Janet McWilliams and Mrs. Barb Matras, they kept the office running smoothly this year. If it weren't for these people, the educational operation at school would be in total dismay.

Mr. Louis Pascuzzo, our Business Manager, took care of all our transportation needs. Without him, we would not have gotten anywhere.

Our Janitorial staff, Mr. Tenney, Mr. Hudock, and Mr. Bowman, keep the halls clean, lawns mowed and make all of the repairs that are needed, not to mention all of the locks t they have cut off when we forget keys. We don't know what we'd without them.

Pictured to the left is Dr. Dolores A. Zoldos, superintendent of Carmichaels Area School District. Her keen administrative know-how keeps C.A.H.S. one of the best schools in the area. To the right are the administrative secretaries. They are, (seated), Ruth Johns, (standing), Anna Mae Moore, and Elizabeth Haligosky.

Teachers "Going And Coming"

Two faculty members have announced their retirement starting at the end of this school year. Mr. William Nesmith and Mr. Fred Stuvek will be calling it quits after 53 years of teaching between them. Mr. Stuvek attended East Bethlehem High School, which is now known as Beth Center. He served in the Navy during World War II. Afterwards he attended West Virginia University and started for four years on the football team. Following college, Mr. Stuvek was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams, but, unfortunately, he was forced to make an early retirement from football because of back injuries. Mr. Stuvek came to Carmichaels in 1950 and he has taught for 33 years. He also coached football, baseball, basketball, and track for twenty years, and he always produced winning teams.

Mr. Nesmith went to school at South Union High School and graduated in 1940. He served with the Marines from 1942-1946. Mr. Nesmith then attended Waynesburg College. Just before graduation, however, he was again called to serve in the armed forces, this time in the Korean War.

After finishing college, Mr. Nesmith worked for the Associate Loan Co. in Uniontown and the Greene County Finance Co. in Carmichaels.

Mr. Nesmith began teaching in November of 1963, and he has taught for 20 years.

We would like to welcome these four teachers who are coming into the educational system. Far left: John Coss majored in Industrial Arts at California University. He was a student teacher supervised by Mr. Smell. Middle left: Chris Rosell majored in English and Social Studies at Waynesburg College. She was a student teacher supervised by Mr. White. Middle right: Kathy Dice was a student teacher under Mr. Neroni. She attended Waynesburg College and majored in English. Far right: Laura Walters was a student teacher supervised by Mr. Williams. She attended West Virginia University and majored in Physical Education and Special Education.

ALMA MATER

Dear old Carmichaels, a toast to you,
Carmichaels our alma mater.
In our hearts we'll ever think of you,
We are loyal sons and daughters.
Dear golden years passing by,
Oh, how they fly!
Short years for both you and I.
We will always sing this song to you,
To the world we'll tell your story.
We are proud that we belong to you,
As you stand in all your glory.
